

Your River ... My River

Time. Water. Land. People.
It flows. They flow. Colors blend.
Once few were here. Many now.
Embraced by River. Complex friend.

More than ever, water speaks.
"Come. Talk. Dream. Work. Play.
See me here. I am yours, your River.
Past. Future. This night. This day."

Not to forget- River takes life.
River gives life. River lures.
Respect its beauty, its strength, its gifts.
For today, our River endures.
